HARVARD COLLEGE

CLASS OF 1903

(SECRETARY'S)
SECOND REPORT

CAMBRIDGE • PRINTED FOR THE
CLASS • THE UNIVERSITY PRESS

348985
6. 4. 38.

CLASS OF 1903

To the Members of the Class:

The reason for issuing this list of addresses and occupations now will be obvious to any one who will compare its contents with the addresses and occupations as given in the First Report, issued in May, 1904. Nearly three fourths of the members of the class have changed either address or occupation, or both. In such a situation it seemed to me that a little time and money would be well spent in attempting to get our bearings. So I have made the attempt, and hope you will approve. That there is demand for such a revised list the frequent requests that come to me from classmates for lists of addresses are ample evidence.

Below I have appended a list of "lost" men, sixty-two in all. Of these, twenty-eight have managed to elude me since the First Report was published, and thirty-four have never been heard from and are included in the list simply because they were registered in the University Catalogues as having been in the same class with us at some time during the college course. If any of you can furnish me information as to any of the men named below I shall be most glad to receive it.

Thanking all of you who have answered my requests for information — and most of you have done it — and urging you to keep me informed as to your future movements, I am,

Sincerely yours,

ROGER ERNST.

November, 1907.
